Resolution 09-18-1917 on Building Permits

It was moved by Porter and seconded by Wright that the following resolution be passed to become effective at once in the City of Rexburg.

“That no building shall be erected in the City of Rexburg or additions made to existing buildings and no building shall be removed from one location to another until the owner of said building shall first have obtained from the City Clerk a permit for the same after the city council shall have approved the said building alterations or removal.”
