REXBURG
America's Family Community

Resolution 10-24-1927

WHEREAS, An audit if the books and accounts of the City of Rexburg made by Van Deusen, Snell & Co., pursuant to an order of the Mayor and City Council, shows a shortage in the accounts of George E. Liljenquist, City Clerk between the 4th day of May, 1921 and the 4th day of May, 1927, in the amount of $7,511.20; and,

WHEREAS, It appears that the maximum which the City con recover an official bond of said City Clerk is $3,000, which will leave a balance still due from said George E. Liljenquist of $4,511.20, plus interest.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Mayor and City Council of the said City of Rexburg that an action be instituted in the proper court by the City Attorney on behalf and in the name of the City of Rexburg for the purpose of recovering from said George E. Liljenquist the aforesaid amount now due from him with interest and that said action be instituted forthwith.

PASSED AND APPROVED this 24th day of October, A.D., 1927.
