Mayor's Message

Well, it's over.

Well, almost, but by the time you read this letter, it will be. My last official act is to swear in two new City of Rexburg officials. This will take place Wednesday, January 6th, as part of our regular City Council meeting. Those beginning new roles as public servants are, Jerry Merrill as Mayor, and Tisha Flora as Jerry's replacement on the City Council. These are good, dedicated people. They study the issues and I believe that the concerns of the people will be met as best they can. I know that their goal is to provide for fair, informed and thoughtful consideration that will best serve the needs of Rexburg's future.

The City is in good hands. We are in the middle of this year's audit. We are financially strong. The Waste Water Treatment Facility is moving forward. We will be way ahead of needs. Envision Madison was a great success. It has fostered a great deal of planning for our future and has saved the City of Rexburg a great deal of money.

What about this "old dog"? Well, all things must end in time. It is time. Will I miss it? Yes, I will! I will miss the good people of Rexburg. What will I miss most? I will miss the people that I have served with. We are blessed with great volunteer organizations that take care of a variety of concerns. These are people who care deeply about Rexburg. They care about Rexburg's past, the present, and the future. I salute you and thank you for your dedication. I will miss Roger and Gwyn Harris. They have given so much to the arts. Roger is a friend to me and a friend to Rexburg. Are there others? Yes, too many to mention them all. I want to thank all of you! I want to thank you for your dedication, for your concerns for others, and for your willingness to put up with me for the last six years as your Mayor. It has been a pleasure and now there is that sense of loss, the pain of separation from those we have grown to love. Yes, I will miss the close association here at City Hall. I have been blessed to work for and with you. Farewell!

-Richard S. Woodland

P.S. My wife, Lori, without whom I couldn't have done any of this, and I will be serving an LDS mission in the Morristown, New Jersey Mission. We leave on the 17th of January. Thanks, again, to you all! I will miss you all!

We want to welcome our new mayor, Mayor Jerry Merrill and our new council member, Council Woman Tisha Flora. They will both be sworn in at City Council on January 6, 2016

The Teton Flood Museum is looking for volunteers

Our volunteers' time and talent are vital to the success of the museum. If you are college-age or older, have some free time during a week day or weekend day, and are looking for a rewarding, enriching experience, then volunteering at the Museum may be for you.

Museum volunteers bring skills, life-experience, and energy to supporting the Museum's mission and the work of our staff as they donate their time. The weekly hourly commitment varies per position, but most volunteers commit an average of two to six hours per week.

For more information please contact our Museum Curator, Jackie Rawlins at jackie.rawlins@rexburg.org
